

CAREER INFORMATION:

- Mentor Program
Employees are assigned a mentor to assist them through orientation and training.
- Orientation Training
The purpose of the company's orientation process is to give the employee an overview of the company products and processes. All new employees are required to spend two weeks in orientation. The orientation involves:

One week in the plant to review products and processes for Safety, Production, Quality Control, Shipping/Receiving, and Maintenance.

One week in the office to review with Human Resources (employee benefits), Operations (Customer Service, Traffic, and I.T.), Sales, Accounting, Quality Programs (ISO, TQM, & ERP), and Phone System.
- Teamwork (Total Quality Management Continuous Improvement Program) VISIONS
After a new employee completes their probationary period they are required to participate in a 5-day problem solving training. This prepares new employees for their VISION Team. All employees are involved with this process and are required to work on a team project one hour a week for 10 months out of the year.
- Communication Tools
Our company uses Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI). MBTI is a tool that helps employees better understand themselves, co-workers, family and friends. Eight hours of training is given to all new employees to help them identify their preferred type and understand the preferences of each type. Knowing others MBTI profile can help resolve conflict, improve communication and teamwork, help employees understand themselves and appreciate others.
- Employee and Company Values: Our employees rank these among our top values.

Quality	Effort (100%)	Safety	Teamwork
Knowledgeable Employees	Positive Attitudes	Customer Focus	Flexibility
Continuous Improvement	Good Communication	Fair
- Input from Employees
The employees at BLAZE Products are very unique. Our continuous improvement processes have given them the knowledge to understand the company, the voice to speak out, and the opportunity to make changes. We believe giving the employees this power has made the company what it is today. Our company values the input of employees. The employees are surveyed throughout the year to assess their suggestions and involvement.
- Business/Family Partnership
BLAZE was awarded in 2000 and 2002 the Metro 100 Business/Family Partnership. In 2003, BLAZE was awarded the Work/Life Alliance Designation.

Our company values the importance of having enough time for family. This is a family oriented company that seldom requires overtime from its employees. We work with employees to allow flexibility in their schedule for family emergencies.
